

Scheduled 2013 Meetings

Tuesday January 15th, 7:00 pm at the Ottawa Citizen Building.

1. Introduction
2. Round Table on “Investing Globally”
What are your experiences and opinions of investing globally?
3. Main Topic: “Valuing a Stock: A Do-It-Yourself Approach”
Robert MacKenzie, PhD, CFP, CIM, Contributing Editor, Canadian MoneySaver

Should we have an idea of what a stock is worth before buying it? You bet! This seminar will outline the valuation methods exemplified in Bruce Greenwald, et. al.'s book, Value Investing (Wiley, 2001). Determining the normal capital structure, net asset value (NAV), and earnings power value of a company provide a good indication of how it will perform in future. Find out why this type of analysis is not beyond the capability of a motivated advanced amateur to undertake. Robert MacKenzie has presented this seminar at the Toronto World Money Show in October. You can check Robert's Bio and his many Moneysaver articles at <https://www.canadianmoneysaver.ca/authors/robert-mackenzie> (member login is required)
